HOWARD ROBINSON WRITES OF HIS WORK IN ENGLAND'S GREAT HARBOR

The following extracts from a letter received yesterday by F. H. Robinson and wife, 710 E. Wilson Ave., from their son Howard written on Feb. 28th, are of special interest just now:

My Dear Mother and Father:—

I received the cablegram last night, and it is the best news I have had since coming over here, to know everybody was well. We are still here at the barracks and I am in charge of guarding a warehouse down at the docks. It has some navy and army supplies in it. There are three watches that stand guard, and each watch stands 24 hours on, and 48 hours off, eight hours of the 24 for one man. It must have cost the U. S. government a lot to send it here.

They seem to be getting better mail service here than they did.

They are sending sailors over here from transports. I think there will be about 4,000 of them here before long. They will man the German ships that the U. S. is taking over. The Red Cross sent us down a big bunch of stuff yesterday, sweaters, socks, underclothes, razors, soap and muffers and a lot of other stuff. Believe me, the Red Cross is a fine organization. They talk about what the Y. M. C. A. has done for the boys over here. We find they charge us nearly twice as much for everything they sell, and never give us anything. The boys in the trenches tell us the Salvation Army has done more for them. The Red Cross gives the boys the stuff they are in need of and looks after them.

I see lots of pictures over here that are made in Los Angeles, and it surely makes me homesick to see the sunshine and the trees.

When I left Glendale to enlist in the navy I weighed 135 pounds and now 165 pounds. My clothes are all getting too small for me and I have a hard time getting into them. The girls over here think the Americans in uniform are a wonderful lot of boys.

Well, I sure feel better since I heard from you.

F. H. ROBINSON, JR.,
U. S. Receiving Ship,
Liverpool, England.

COMMUNITY SING CONTEST

The songs which are to be sung tonight at the Community Sing in the contest between Glendale and Hollywood choruses are:

"My Bonnie," "Old Folks at Home," "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," "Dixie," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and "Old Black Joe."

The singing will be judged according to a scale of five points, viz.: Attack, quality, enunciation, attention and facial expression.

An effort will be made to seat the singers who have been regular attendants and who are accustomed to the leadership of Mr. Kirchoffer in the forward part of the auditorium. It is expected that there will be those in the audience who have not trained who will not sing while the contest is on for fear of making mistakes which might bring down the score of the local chorus. After the contest is over and while the judges are making their findings, there will be community singing of all present, whether they come from Hollywood, Glendale or Hong Kong.

TROLLEY MAN HURT

FLETCHER UPP A P. E. EMPLOYEE HAS FOOT CRUSHED WHILE COUPLING CARS

A sad accident which robbed a good man of a large measure of his physical efficiency, occurred Wednesday morning when Fletcher Upp, an extra P. E. trailer man, while attempting to couple two cars on the surface line at 6th and Los Angeles streets, L. A., had his foot badly crushed. He was taken to the Crocker Street Hospital, where the amputation of the foot was found to be necessary.

Mr. Upp is a married man of middle age, who has been in the employ of the P. E. for some time. Recently he was transferred from Pomona, where he owns property, to Los Angeles. He has made some runs to Glendale and is well known to I. T. Aney and other trolley men of this city who sincerely sympathize with him in his misfortune. His State Insurance will help him in the crisis and fellow employees are sure the company will be generous and helpful for such is its policy.

NOVEL CELEBRATION

MESSRS. AND MESDAMES ANDERSON AND HOFFMAN OBSERVE DOUBLE SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hoffman of 1119 E. Wilson avenue and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson of South Isabel street, who were married at a double wedding which took place twenty-five years ago in Monrovia, are celebrating their silver wedding anniversary this week. Tuesday on the anniversary date there was a mid-day family dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, at which relatives and close friends were guests, the list including besides the special celebrants, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Higgins, Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern, Miss Margaret Higgins, John Hoffman of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foy and their small son and daughter, Mrs. Foy of Hollywood and daughter. In the afternoon the party enjoyed an auto ride together.

Wednesday evening the celebration was continued with a silver social at the home of the Hoffmans where their friends of the Lutheran Church gathered to congratulate the two happy couples, bringing a silver offering which instead of being appropriated by the special guests of honor was given to the fund which is being accumulated to meet the church debt.

THOMPSON-STEELE

CASA VERDUGO GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF LANCASTER MAN AT HOME WEDDING

At the home of Mrs. Laura A. Steele, 1528 Lorraine street, on Wednesday evening, March 19th, occurred a quiet home wedding when her daughter, Miss Ella A. Steele, was married to Thaddeus R. Thompson, of Lancaster, Cal. Dr. Julius Soper officiated in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the young couple. Mrs. C. M. Robinson, a sister, attended the bride while the groom was supported by Don Barton during the ceremony. This marriage was the fulfillment of a romance begun when the two interested parties were schoolmates at Glenwood Springs, Colorado, some years ago. The bride has lived in this vicinity for a matter of ten years and has endeared herself to many during her residence here. Her husband is a wide-awake young business man of Lancaster.

After a short wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home to their friends at Lancaster.

COMMITTEES CONSIDER DISPOSITION OF FUNDS AND OTHER IMPORTANT MATTERS

A meeting of directors and committees of Junior Red Cross work was held at the Intermediate School Wednesday afternoon to discuss the disposition of treasury funds and what if any work can be done by the schools.

Several reports were submitted, the first from the committee appointed to ascertain what steps could be taken to adopt ten French and Belgian orphans, using Junior Red Cross funds for the purpose. The report stated that inquiries addressed to the Pacific Coast Division in San Francisco brought information that a meeting is now in progress in Washington to consider Junior Chapter reorganization and the policy to be followed in meeting such propositions as the one offered by Glendale Juniors. Until a decision is reached in Washington (Continued on Page 3)

CARNATION REBEKAH LODGE

The first regular meeting of Rebekah Lodge which has been held in the new headquarters, took place Tuesday night with a good attendance and great satisfaction on the part of members. The District Deputy President, Mrs. Ware, was present, and a number of visitors from Los Angeles lodges. The old robes which had been used in the ceremonial work of the lodge were sold, also donations of canned fruit and home-made cake from which nearly $40 was realized for the Children's Home at Gilroy. A very pleasant social evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served at the close. Besides the lodge hall the new headquarters contain beautiful reception, dining and rest rooms, which are going to be very attractive when all the furnishings are installed, and the organizations using them are much pleased with the change.

TWO WAYS TO SECURE WORLD PEACE

SECRETARY BAKER DEFINES THEM AS ONE-NATION DOMINATION OR A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, March 20.—Secretary of War Baker, speaking here this morning, declared there are two ways of preserving world peace. One, he said, is world domination by a single nation, as attempted by Germany; the other is the formation of a League of nations with the five big nations associated.

Baker declared that the five great powers are the only nations capable of making war on a scale which would disturb world peace.

ASPHYXIATIONS IN LOS ANGELES

FOUR DEAD, SEVEN OTHERS IN SERIOUS CONDITION FROM GAS ESCAPING FROM STREET MAIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, March 20.—An entire family of four members was asphyxiated and seven others sent to the emergency hospital in a serious condition today, resulting from gas escaping from a main in the street, which worked its way into three houses during the night.

The dead are Sarovia Reueles, his wife and their two children, aged four and six years.

The gas main broke yesterday and the city police warned the residents of that vicinity against the danger of fire. They went to Reueles' home this morning to make an inspection and found the family dead. At an adjoining house three others were nearly dead, and at a house across the street four were found unconscious.

The only explanation offered is that the damp air caused the gas to travel along the ground and then seep into the houses through the cracks and holes in the floors.

BOLSHEVIKI DEFEATED AT ARCHANGEL

LEAVE MANY DEAD, WOUNDED AND PRISONERS IN THE HANDS OF ALLIES—NEW ANTI-BOLSHEVIK PARTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, March 20.—An official communique issued today announced that the Bolsheviks have been defeated in an attack on the Allies opposite Archangel. They left many dead, wounded and prisoners in the hands of the Allies.

A Copenhagen dispatch said that the Lithuanian information bureau has announced that a strong new anti-Bolshevik movement has started in Lithuania.

A Berlin dispatch, quoting the "National Zeitung," said that the Bolsheviks are planning an invasion of Germany, coincident with new uprisings in Germany and Austria.

GERMANY CALLS COUNCIL OF WAR

SEEKS MEANS OF DEFENSE AGAINST THREATENED BOLSHEVIK INVASION AND UPRISING OF RADICALS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Copenhagen, March 20.—Germany has called a council of war to consider means of defending the country against the threatened Bolshevik invasion. The government fears the attempted invasion would be a signal for a general uprising of all the radical elements in Germany. President Ebert considers the menace from Russian radicals as a greater danger than that of the Spartan group within Germany.

GOVERNMENTAL ECONOMIES

STATE GOVERNMENTAL EFFICIENCY COMMISSION RECOMMENDS SAVING OF $275,000

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Sacramento, March 20.—Governor Stephens today transmitted to the Legislature the report of the State Governmental Efficiency Commission.

The report offers radical changes in methods of administration and proposes changes which are expected to effect a nine per cent saving in the cost of government, or a total of $275,000 annually. Of this amount $175,000 would be saved by a system of cash discounts on state purchases and the remainder by the reorganization of governmental agencies.

In his letter of transmission the Governor declared: "There is little hope of being able to place the recommendations in effect at this session of the legislature."

TWO MAJORS TO SPEAK

FINE SALVATION ARMY ORATORS SECURED FOR ELKS' CLUB MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT

The most cordial kind of an invitation is being extended to the citizens of Glendale to come out to the Elks' Club House next Friday evening in large numbers to hear two eloquent speakers for the Salvation Army, viz.: Major Louise Coggeshall, of the L. A. Maternity Home, and Major William H. Gooding of the Men's Industrial Home. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock and everybody who is interested in this noble army and all who are willing to help in the drive for it which begins next Monday are requested to be on hand and show their colors. The members of the Salvation Army did not hesitate to spend money or spend themselves for the comfort and well-being of the American boys at the front. Now is the time to show a proper appreciation of what they did.

SAD SIGHTS IN FRANCE

RED CROSS NURSE WRITES OF WAN CHILDREN, SAD WOMEN, WHITE-FACED SOLDIERS

The following interesting letter from Miss Lowe, a British army nurse who talked before Red Cross societies while recuperating in Southern California and which was written to a friend in La Canada, has been given to this paper for publication:

U. S. Base Hospital 82,
Toul, France,
Feb. 14, 1919.

My Dear Friend:—

You must not think that I have forgotten my promise to write you, but your address book is in my trunk and as I have not seen it for some time I am running the risk of this finding you.

We are right in the fighting area here, near Metz, Maicy, Chateau Thierry, and oh, the shelled and bombed villages are a sad sight. Churches with not a piece of wall standing.

The little children of France look pinched and wan, starved. No play in them. The women look as though they had said good-bye forever. Never a smile and so quiet, and the poor fellows who have been in the (Continued on Page 2)

AMERICANIZATION

CLASS FOR ADULT FOREIGNERS STARTED AT INTERMEDIATE BY MISS NOBLE

A genuine Americanization effort has started in Glendale and without any blare of trumpets either.

At the Intermediate School a class has been begun to teach English to adult foreigners. It is meeting daily from 10:40 a. m. to 11:40 and as yet there is but one pupil, a Russian woman, who speaks English quite well, but wishes to increase her knowledge of the written language. Miss Noble, the Vice-Principal, is the instructor and when the opportunity is advertised it is hoped that a considerable number of Spanish-speaking and Japanese women will take advantage of the chance and become pupils. Because of the time at which the instruction is given it is not expected that male adults will register in any considerable numbers, though they will be welcome if they come. The majority of men will be employed and unable to spare the time. As there is no provision for a night school in connection with the Glendale system no evening work with aliens can be done at present. However, it should be good news to all such to know that the teachers are interested in them and ready to help them to become better citizens of America by learning our written and spoken tongue. There will be no charge.

If the class develops as Superintendent White hopes it will, the teaching will be adapted to the special needs of each pupil.

EXEMPTION BOARD EQUIPMENT

Chairman Lanterman of the local Exemption Board reports that his work will be closed and his headquarters in the City Hall surrendered at the end of the present month. The Board has a miscellaneous equipment of cabinet and box-filing cases and of lumber in the shape of tables which it will sell at the minimum price of second-hand stuff set by the government next Monday. Any person having use for such materials will do well to call at the Board headquarters in the City Hall.

PRIMARY BILL LOST

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY ASSEMBLYMAN WHITE DEFEATED BY BREED BILL

It will be a great disappointment to Glendale citizens to know that the amendment to the primary law introduced at Sacramento by Assemblyman John Robert White of this city, which would limit candidates to the ballot of the party with which they are registered was defeated by a narrow margin in the vote taken by the assembly Wednesday, the Breed bill favored by the administration, which leaves the primary law practically as it is now, winning by two votes. Twelve of the fifteen members of the Los Angeles county delegation in the assembly voted for the White amendment.

In defense of the measure Assemblyman White called attention to the fact that the ballot which is intended to convey information to the voter really confuses him since there is no means by which he can determine what parties the candidates represent. Said he: "There may be eight or ten names of candidates in a row. He has no way of learning from the ballot whether they are Republicans, Democrats, Socialists or Bolsheviks. Why do you put into the law that he cannot see the ballot of another party, thus refusing him the only means of knowing whether the men on his ticket are really members of his own party? The candidate is compelled to state his party designation. Why is that kept for secret information? Such an election law is a reproach to honest legislation."

Assemblymen Carter of Los Angeles, and Green and Bennett of the Santa Clara Valley, also made strong pleas for the White Primary Amendment.

THE LAUNDRY AMENDMENT

The amendment to the eight-hour law for women permitting them to work nine hours a day in any week in which a national holiday occurs, their labor not to exceed 45 hours in that week, which was introduced by Assemblyman John Robert White of this city, passed the Assembly at Sacramento Tuesday in spite of the opposition of Union Laborites. They have since been successful in securing enough votes to call it up for reconsideration and reference to committee, but Mr. White is confident it will again receive favorable consideration by the Assembly.

THE MCGEE FAMILY

The last letter which Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. McGee had from their son Lewis, who is a wireless operator on the destroyer Decatur, was dated at Malta in January and stated that he would soon be in Constantinople for the second time.

Mrs. Allena Powers, their daughter, and her baby, are here with the McGees. Her husband, Lieut. Harry Powers, of the United States Infantry, is still in France with the Third Corps. He expects to get home in June or July and is very anxious to return to see his wife and seventeen-months-old child.

WEARIN' O' THE GREEN

JESSE SMITH'S "FORD" WINDOW DOES HONOR TO THE GOOD OLD SAINT

It is no longer St. Patrick's Day that is celebrated, but rather St. Patrick's week, and a number of business houses are still bedecked with reminders of the good old serpent exterminator. Among these is the striking window design in Jesse Smith's Ford Agency. On a carpet of green, and surrounded by a green valence, is the word "Champion," built out of boxed spark plugs of that famous make. Small mounds of the same, but of a smaller design, occupy opposite corners. At the back of the window and extending entirely across is a line of rubber footpads for brake and other levers, interspersed with radiator caps of different designs. On each side is a whirligig ornament for the radiator, striped in the national colors, while in the center, dominating all is Old Glory. An electric fan in one corner keeps the flag fluttering in all its beauty. As a window trim and a St. Patrick's reminder it reflects great credit on designer and constructor, and elicits many admiring expressions from passersby, both on foot and in autos.

HAVE HAD ENOUGH

The American boy is not a professional fighter. He loathes the idea. True, when a fight is forced on him, as was the case in the recent world war, he puts his whole heart, soul and weight into the combat in order to bring it more quickly to an end. He so loathes war that he fights with desperation to bring about peace. It was just this trait in the American soldier, marine and sailor that so completely astonished the Prussian professional soldiery and broke their morale. They believed that America was too fond of the dollar and too peace-loving to fight—in fact, that the nation could not be kicked and cuffed into a fight. True, they had some reason for this belief, in the nation's meekness in face of the Lusitania, Sussex and other horrors. They were perfectly sure that even if America were forced into the war, her soldiers would shirk danger and fight half-heartedly. Chateau Thierry was their first real awakening, and the "Devil Dogs" that day upset all their theories. As the battle continued day after day, with the fresh-faced, little-trained American boys pushing ever onward, overwhelming the seasoned veterans, the German forces lost all their complacency. Then Argonne, that most desperate battle ever waged against apparently insuperable obstacles, completed the disillusionment, and then they gave up. The battling over, these fierce fighters, whom no obstacle could stay, became again the quiet, peace-loving boys who wanted nothing so much as to get back home again.

This trait was strikingly exemplified the past week when a call was made from San Pedro to the members of the Naval Reserve Band who were recently discharged, asking them to enlist for a four months' tour of the Western States, for the purpose of stimulating enlistments. As far as heard from, the boys declined to volunteer, as most of them had already planned business enterprises and wanted to cut loose entirely from all connection with fighting.

BRITAIN MAY ASK AID IN BIG NAVY POLICY

(By United Press)
LONDON, Feb. 18. (By Mail).—Development of vast separate naval squadrons by British colonies is being discussed in naval circles here?

Each of the big dominions, India, Australia and Canada would be urged to augment greatly their squadrons, which would become formidable units of the grand fleet in wartime.

The proposal is receiving much encouragement from shippers, who predict a tremendously increased trade with the far eastern territories. The flag, they argue, should follow trade. Without its potential protection trade must be restricted, it is urged.

Point is given to the colonial navies proposal by the advancement of S. P. Sinha, a native Indian, to a peerage and a place in the government as undersecretary of the Indian office. This is the first time a native Indian has been given a seat in the government of the United Kingdom.

The use of Indian troops who fought shoulder to shoulder with Britons in the war is regarded as another indication the proposal is receiving attention. Native Indians, it is believed, within a few years will be serving on many ships of the navy.

GREAT APPROPRIATION FOR GOVERNMENT ROADS

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, March 20.—The United States will have a total of at least $574,000,000 for co-operative road building during the next three years, according to the terms of the Federal Aid Road Act. The Federal part of this fund is assured by an extra appropriation of $209,000,000 in the postoffice appropriation bill just passed by congress and signed by the President.

This amount of funds is the largest ever appropriated for a similar period by any government. It will enable the government to carry out a roadbuilding program of a magnitude never equaled.

TO COMPETE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The basketball game played at Alhambra last night between the teams of Glendale High and Alhambra High was a victory for Glendale, but details of the game and the score are lacking. This means that Glendale will have a chance at the championship which will be settled at a game to be played the coming week between last night's victor and the team of Covina High which won from Burbank Tuesday night.

BRITISH WOMEN MAY COME TO U. S. FOR JOBS

LONDON, Feb. 17. (By Mail).—Approximately 130,000 female clerks will be discharged by the government within the next three months as a part of departmental demobilization. Many are expected to emigrate to America because of the small number of positions open to them in England.

LONDON IS A-JAZZ

(By United Press)
LONDON, Feb. 18. (By Mail).—Jazz halls are springing up like mushrooms all over London.

For popularity they rival the movies. Women who have an hour to spare while on a shopping trip or between tea and dinner engagements now pass the time pleasantly jazzing. A syndicate of American business men is snapping up every available building.

It is puzzling to know how decorators, electricians and bands are requisitioned so quickly. Buildings which a few days ago stood drearily empty and sadly out of repair, today are rose-painted, pink-shaded halls filled with laughing dancers.

The jazz germ is as rampant as was the "flu" bug some months ago.

CITY ATTORNEY EVANS GIVES OPINION

March 6, 1919.
Norton C. Wells, President, Greater Glendale Development Assn., Hollingsworth Building, Los Angeles, California.

My Dear Mr. Wells:—
Concerning the efforts of your association for improvement of the postal service in the City of Glendale, I note that you are met with the response from the post-office authorities to the effect that Glendale has equally as good service as other stations in and about the City of Los Angeles, and should therefore be satisfied, so long as there is no discrimination; that other stations are crowded and at times persons are required to stand in line at the window for a considerable time before they can be waited upon, at practically all the different stations within the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles office.

I do not believe that the Glendale situation is comparable with the average condition of other outlying stations for this reason: Glendale is a separate and distinct community with a population of over 12,000, receiving mail service through one office or station. This community is under a separate organized government and is looked upon, and actually is, a much greater distributing point than the average station in the City of Los Angeles. There are five banks, a great number of business and industrial establishments located there, all of which receive their service through the Glendale office and hold the Glendale office entirely responsible primarily for the character of the service. The average Los Angeles business man receives his mail at his office down town or at his place of business and not out in the residential section where the station may be located through which his family receives mail. It is unfair to say that these hundreds of business men of the City of Glendale have no more right to complain against having to stand in line ten or fifteen minutes to buy a dollar's worth of stamps, for example, than the person who receives his mail out in the residential section of the City of Los Angeles. The reason is, that the conditions and service are essentially different.

Respectfully yours,
W. E. EVANS.

war so long all look about the same. I met a whole regiment of them coming from the front last Sunday. Their white, tired faces made me feel how I would love to give them some happiness, but it is not with themselves whether they are ready yet for the world's peace, which can only be brought about by a spiritual awakening. This awful bloodshed and chaos of the whole world has brought many to see as they never have before the extent of God and his plans. I want to tell you how much you ladies of the Red Cross have done for us all over here. I do not know that we could have stood it quite as well had it not been for what we have all received from you. I have had a bar of your chocolate in my pocket as I have been running around doing my work and have nibbled at it with many thanks in my heart for the givers.

I could not keep my hands warm at all until our chief nurse went over to the Red Cross and brought me back a pair of woolen gloves. God will bless you all for the work you have done for us all here. There are many grateful hearts.

We are not busy now and we are expecting at any time to return to the states, then we hope to see you. I have missed the sun of beautiful California and am afraid the change of food has made me lose a great deal in weight, but we have always had plenty and the best that can be given us here. We are in French barracks with stone floors, no tables, no chairs, and fires that we cannot always have fuel for, but our inconveniences are nothing compared to what our dear boys have had and I am so grateful to have had the privilege of being here.

With few exceptions we are well and happy. There has been great sadness and sorrow, so that one feels life can never be the same indifferent one again, but we must not dwell on those things for we were meant to be happy always and leave the rest with God.

I trust you are all well and that I shall see you before long. Believe me

Your very affectionate
EDITH M. LOWE.

THEIR WAY

The following poem by William Thwyng, a Freshman in Glendale Union High School, should be of interest to readers:

Some people have a dreadful habit
Of wanting things their way.
And you never could show them that they're wrong
No matter what you do or say.

They're just like those, who, color blind
Have picked out colors which
They were not told to find,
Yet still they have their doubts.

And so it is in all life's ways
You seem to like the best
The ways which are your own.
When it comes to a final test.

Personals

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and Mrs. R. D. Goss were guests at a reciprocity club meeting in Pasadena Tuesday and spent a very charming day, they report.

Steve Haviland who returned safe and sound from war after the most thrilling experiences at the front is now regularly employed in J. J. Nesom's Drug Store in Los Angeles and finds it good to be a civilian once more.

On account of the illness of Mrs. Catherine Shank, Mrs. Charles Parker will take her place as one of the judges at the community sing contest between Glendale and Hollywood choruses which comes off tonight at Glendale Union High School.

A. L. Lathrop, of the Union Bank and Trust Co., Los Angeles, has leased the property at 329 W. Dryden and will move his family to Glendale soon. He and Mrs. Lathrop were out viewing the property yesterday and Mrs. Lathrop had the misfortune to lose a diamond pin.

A wealthy Easterner was in Glendale last week looking for an up-to-date residence, as he was determined to locate in Glendale. Quite unexpectedly he learned of a place that exactly suited him and on Tuesday he closed the deal, putting up all the cash, $5,250.

F. L. Muhleman of 203 East Chestnut street has just returned from a three weeks' business trip to Indiana, where most of his time was spent in Indianapolis. He also visited his sister, Mrs. E. P. Anshutz, at Vevay, Indiana, who, with her little son and daughter, returned with him. The entire Muhleman family is now in California.

Supervisor Charlton of our local mountains, the Angelus Forest Reserve, has been selected as one of the three supervisors in California who are to spend a month in the office of the District Forester at San Francisco to give that office the benefit of their advice and experience in the field of forestry work as many reforms have been instituted here that are needed in other reserves throughout the state.

The cold, wet weather has upset the plans of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingledue who are entertaining relatives. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whitney and daughter Leota of Lima, Iowa, with whom they had planned to motor to San Diego this week, Mr. Ingledue having arranged to take a week off from his business to tour the country with his guests. They are hoping for better weather in April when an auto trip to Bakersfield and possibly further north has been planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Parker of 133 North Louise street entertained Wednesday at a six o'clock dinner, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Abbott of Marshalltown, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wells of the Loomis Apartments, Los Angeles, and their son, Dr. Edward Wells, of Boston. Dr. Wells has just returned from France where he has been with the English Army with the rank of Captain.

CITY HALL GOSSIP

The police department gathered in a lost dog Wednesday, which was creating some alarm on Hawthorne street but which is apparently a perfectly safe and normal canine, and which they say has every appearance of being a valuable Airedale. Officers are wondering to whom it belongs.

Speaking of the City Employment Agency, City Clerk Sherer says there is quite a demand for men to do small jobs such as gardening and cleaning up work. Most of the applicants for work have been civilians rather than soldiers, he says.

About $35,000 of city taxes are yet to be collected. Taxpayers are a little slow in coming forward with their second installments the City Treasurer reports.

PROMOTION FOR FREEMAN BREWSTER

Freeman T. Brewster, son of Geo. Brewster of 1014 North Louise street, this city, is not released from service yet, but has been promoted to a clerkship in Marine Headquarters in Washington and from a salary of $30 per month has been jumped to $103, plus his insurance and an allotment for his youngest sister, also plus his clothes. He was very anxious for release and tried to buy his way out of the service but is more reconciled now. Though H. C. L. is particularly pronounced in Washington, he has managed to make himself comfortable and is living with a nice American family in one of the old aristocratic parts of the city.

TO WALK HUMBL Y WITH GOD

(By Francis Lee Chauvan)

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God." Micah 6-8.

To walk humbly with Thee, O God!
Is my soul's cherished pride,
To walk with Thee, in truth erect,
And in Thy love confide.

If in life's drama I am cast
To play a minor part,
I'll play it to win Thy applause,
With humbleness of heart.

The lowly task assigned to me,
I'll strive, with pride, to do;
My work will be my rest in Thee,
And to myself be true.

In my soul's humble walk with Thee,
Justice will be my guide,
My mind will then be one with Thine,
With wisdom to decide.

In union with Thy Mind divine,
Mercy in me will reign;
Mercy for all—for animals
That speechless bear our pain.
Glendale, Cal.

RETURNING TO SOUTH HAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casselman of 451 Elk avenue this morning said good-bye to the three sisters of Mr. Casselman who have been their guests for the past month, viz., Mrs. Sadie Hopkins, Mrs. Elsie Eccles and Miss Lizzie Casselman, who are returning to their home in South Haven, Michigan. They will stop en route at Santa Cruz. They spent the greater part of the winter in San Diego and are much delighted with California, particularly with Glendale which they consider a wonderfully beautiful place and whose people they were much delighted with because of their friendly cordiality.

OUR BELOVED COMMUNITY SING

(CONTRIBUTED)

What is music? If we could tell as much of it as we feel when hearing it, we might easily answer the question. Is it an eternal sentiment living within us that is aroused when sounds are produced? All people need an ideal world and many have wandered therein.

The interest has grown steadily under the masterful leadership of Mr. Kirchhoff. Parents have invested from three to five dollars a lesson for the same musical instruction given by our director. We sing good music.

Everyone should know the folk songs of their own country and know

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL MEETING
The annual meeting for reports and election of officers of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the Lutheran Church, corner of Harvard and Maryland avenue, Friday, March 21st, beginning promptly at 10 a. m. It will be the usual all-day meeting. The picnic lunch will be served at the parsonage at noon. Every one is asked to bring sandwiches, one other eatable and a teacup. A full attendance is desired.

How to sing them correctly.
Have you lived in the South? Come to "Community Sing" and join in "Old Folks at Home," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe" and good, old "Dixie Land."

Listen! and perchance you will hear your mother's voice singing again those songs you loved to hear from her lips—songs of the sanctuary as well as those of the school room.

Come to "Community Sing" and join in the old familiar hymns.

Do you love the strains you sang when a child sitting on the veranda in the twilight of the evening. Come to "Community Sing" and join in "My Bonnie," "Yankee Doodle," "Three Blind Mice" and "Sweet and Low."

And those good old college days. Be a boy again and join in "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Yale Boole," "Last Night the Nightingale Woke Me," "The Orange and the Black," "Santa Lucia," "The Spanish Cavalier," "Juanita," "The Old Oaken Bucket" and "Jingle Bells."

Have you forgotten the Scotch, Irish and English songs with their tender pathos? Beautiful "Annie Laurie," "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Last Rose of Summer," "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," "Auld Lang Syne" and "Loch Lomond?"

Be a real American and learn the patriotic songs of the "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave." Come one! Come all! It's good for nine and seventy-nine. Come tonight and help in the big musical contest between Glendale and Hollywood.

ton the Glendale Committee has been instructed to hold its money and take no action until instructed further.

The committee on the history of war work in the Glendale Schools reported that the history it had been compiling was nearly completed but not quite ready to present, that certain statistics were lacking which would be available at an early date.

Red Cross work in the schools was also discussed and a decision was reached to do no more of it at present, i. e., not to devote any school time to such work. While theoretically it is still needed, as a matter of actuality it can be done by the parents and the children have an emergency of their own to meet in making up the school time lost during the influenza epidemic.

Plans for the clothing drive for all the war-torn countries of Europe were received with enthusiasm and all agreed that the facilities of the schools should be used to promote the work.

Another more personal matter was the disposition of the knitted woolen blankets made by school boys and girls of which the chapter has a considerable number on hand. Mesdames Ryan and Barclay were named as a committee to ascertain if they could be sent to the Letterman Hospital in San Francisco for the use of convalescent soldiers, who might find them a great comfort when sitting up.

Mrs. Hartley Shaw reported excellent work being done in the collection and sale of salvage by the Cerritos School.

The meeting was well attended, practically all principals of schools being present and the majority of committee members.
